

Ruth 4

Redeemed!

Ruth chapter 4

Boaz asked the other man if he wanted to marry Ruth. He said 'No'. To show that he had made an agreement with Boaz, he gave Boaz his sandal. It is what they did in Bible times. The men watching knew that an agreement had been made. Boaz had bought the right to marry Ruth. She was redeemed.

They were married and were very happy. They had a baby son, who was the grandfather of David. Later on Jesus was born into this family.

Jesus came to the world to redeem, or buy back, people like you and me who do, think and say wrong things. That means we do sins. Sinful people are not friends with God. When Jesus died on the cross He paid the price for all the sins of people who trust in Him. Then they become friends with God. Isn't that wonderful!

Have you asked Jesus to forgive your sins? Are you a friend of God through Jesus?
