The Shepherds Saw a Great Light

God's Son, Jesus Christ, was born on the first Christmas night. His mother's name was Mary. Mary and Joseph had travelled from their home town of Nazareth to be registered in Bethlehem. The only place there was room for them to sleep was in the stable. Jesus' first bed was a manger.

Out in the fields were some shepherds, keeping watch over their flock of sheep. Suddenly a bright angel appeared in the sky. They were frightened at first, but the angel told them not to be afraid. He gave them the good news that a Saviour had been born. He told them where the new Baby was.

Then many other angels joined in and sang praise to God for sending His only Son to earth. They knew that this was God keeping His promise to rescue people from their sins.

After the angels had gone, the shepherds went to see the Baby Jesus. They came and worshipped Him. They were the first visitors Jesus had. The shepherds knew they needed a Saviour. They were thankful that God had sent Jesus to save them.

We all need a Saviour. Jesus came to take away the sins of all who trust and believe in Him. Have you asked Him to forgive you?
