Communion service

On the first Sunday of each month a communion service will be held after the morning worship service. People will remain in the same seats. The elements will be served by the deacons, who will wear masks. A portion of bread will be in a lidded pot and the juice in covered, preferably sealed, filled cups.

Wearing of face masks

Wearing of masks will be required by law as from 8.9.20. All worshippers are asked to comply with this request. Face masks are available in the lobby.

Reminder

People are requested to exit the building as soon as possible after the services, and to hold conversations outside, always maintaining social distancing. We should be vigilant in this and remember that members of the public will observe our behaviour.
